I've been posting foot pictures in the most interesting parts of the internet lately.

It's taken no time at all for them to admire my long manicured toes, high arches, smooth soles, and tasteful Jewellery.

I've had offers to lick my dirty feet clean. A few call me goddess, I've been called Mommy too.

The whole experience has been a whirlwind that's connected me to several countries around the world. Offering me personal glimpses into life in Columbia or Australia. Maybe soon, I may make money off my feet. But, in the meantime, I'm just enjoying the ride.
